CLASSIFIED BUSINESS DIRECTORY (page 215). All business houses, individuals in business for themselves, and professional men are listed without charge under the heading that best describes them. The more progressive houses realize that it pays to be easily found, pay a nominal charge for special listings in heavy type, under every heading where a buyer might look for them, cross indexed to a descriptive space in the "Buyers' Guide." # HISTORY OF HUDSON

The city of Hudson, N. Y., the first American city, was incorporated by the legislature of the State of New York in 1785. Its charter was the first granted to an American city after the independence of our country had been achieved and four years before the first inauguration of George Washington. The land contained in the corporate limits of this charter was greater in extent than now, including all of the present town of Greenport and part of the town of Stockport as far north as Major Abraham Staats' creek.

The early settlers in this community were people from Holland, who came fully one hundred and twenty-five years before the date of our city. With their Dutch habits of thrift and enterprise, they soon had prosperous farms and convenient dwellings and were a happy and contented people. Near the river, where our city is now built, were two stores and a landing from which they sent their vessels laden with their products to market and to which they returned with the necessary articles for their own use. The surrounding territory was called Claverack and the landing Claverack Landing.

In 1783, several merchants engaged in whale fishing and navigating the deep seas, residing in Nantucket, Martha Vineyard and Providence, Rhode Island, under the leadership of the brothers. Thomas and Seth Jenkins agreed to form an association and transfer their business from the exposed coast of New England to a place more inland. They had suffered great losses from the depredations of the British Fleet during the Revolution and they planned to guard against such disasters in the future. After considering several locations, they decided on the site where our city now stands. The river front had an entirely different appearance in those days than now. There was no railroad along the river and Promenade Hill advanced more into the river causing the two bays to stand out more prominently. The one to the south, with the hill to the north and Mt Merino to the south, was a splendid harbor, suitable for the anchorage of their largest vessels. Its size may be determined when it is told that where the new Central Railroad depot now stands, they built their largest shipyard.

They bought the land and the first families began to arrive in the fall of 1783 and the spring of 1784. The proprietors, as they were called, made a map of the place, laid out lots and streets and immediately commenced their municipal life. They had brought with them their ships and stock in trade and all their worldly goods. One of the first municipal acts was to have their city incorporated in the year above mentioned. They were all able men, full of enterprise, and possessed with ample wealth to carry out their undertakings. Dwellings, stores, warehouses, factories and ships were erected and built as soon as possible. The growth of the city was remarkable. Its importance was established at once and a great many people from New England and other parts of New York came and joined them in their commercial activities.

The principal businesses were ship building and the allied trades; whale fishing and the rendering of oil and the manufacturing of candles, and general shipping and commerce. They obtained cargoes for their vessels from the surrounding country as far east as the Berkshire hills and sent them in trade to South America, West Indies and Europe. In their whale fishing voyages they sailed on every sea and brought home great wealth to their owners. Hudson in 1790 became a port of entry and remained one until 1815.

In 1812 their business began to decline. The long war of America for commercial independence culminating in active warfare in this year, was very disastrous for the shipping interests of the country. There was a big demand for neutral ships and many of them were lost and others entered the Atlantic coast trade. With the embargoes and non-intercourse acts of the Federal government the merchants of Hudson were almost ruined. Commercial depression and great losses came to all the citizens of our city.

In 1829 the business of whale fishing was renewed and under the active direction of Judge Robert A. Barnard, prosperity and wealth began to return. A company was organized and for several years the voyages were successfully conducted. The most valuable cargo ever brought home from a whale voyage occurred during this time. Notwithstanding these successes another decline began to set in and the men of Hudson gradually changed their business ventures into other fields. In the year 1845 the last ship was sold.

The causes of this second decline were natural and economic. Railroads were being built and diverting traffic into other channels; whale oil and candles gave way to natural gas and petroleum, the Federal government was growing stronger and this country being at peace with all the world, the coast cities could carry on fishing and general shipping more safely and advantageously. Our merchants and business men turned their thoughts to manufacturing and allied trades and our city's commercial growth has been increasing along these lines ever since.

While the growth of the city for the first twenty-five years was remarkable, the population and wealth has steadily increased from year to year, notwithstanding the corporate limits of the city being reduced by the setting aside of the town of Greenport and the part given to Stockport.

Hudson has given its full share of the splendid men and women who have helped to make our nation great; and the citizens who remained among us have engaged in all the active duties and cares of social and municipal life and have given to Hudson its due share of public and social institutions. Hudson is built upon a hill, sanitary and healthy. A noble scenery all around. The Catskill mountains to the west, our magnificent river in front of us and the New England hills to the east.

As a commercial and manufacturing city our location is advantageous. We are at the head of ship navigation by the river, railroads centering here from the north, south and east; a first-class commodious ferry connecting with the west. All these facilities help our merchants and manufacturers in conducting their business promptly and profitably and have developed a happy and contented community. Our city is surrounded by prosperous farms and nearby towns and villages, which are conducting a successful manufacturing and commercial enterprises; and these units and social groups are a part of our municipal life, so much so that Hudson and its activities cover half of the county of Columbia.

Those of us who have lived here all our lives are familiar with the facts of the past and the realities of the present and have watched this city grow and become modern, with its new and useful public buildings and the public life they inspire; our municipal improvements make the city a better place to live in; our splendid churches and the social life which sustains them; our schools and the educational advantages of our people; our successful merchants and business men supported by our strong financial institutions; we can well afford to be proud of our city and invite others to join us, remembering always that it is not so important how big our city is, but how the spirit of co-operation animates our citizens.

"Familiarity Breeds Contempt"

The City Directory is a familiar sight in any community. You see it here, there and everywhere; in stores, banks, real estate offices, railroad stations, etc. Usually it is tucked away in a corner. Mostly it is well thumbed, torn, disheveled in general—all evidences of its great utility and frequent use. It does not lend itself to beauty; in that particular it is plainly utilitarian. It is such an ordinary sight that its value is lost or hidden by its commonness.

Put a lump of coal in a glass case and place it in a display window and the police will have to clear the sidewalks—yet we never take a second look at a wagon-load unless we are hard hit by a strike.

Deprive a city of its Directory and it suddenly becomes a jewel of rare price. Ask any business man how he would like to be without a directory for a year or two.

TRADE! You like to patronize those concerns who are in business to stay.

It's human to expect that such business establishments always stand back of the wares they sell.

The advertising in this Directory is suggestive of the stability and permanency of the advertisers.

Frauds, fakes, get-rich-quick and other schemers have little use for directory advertising. It lives too long.

The modern City Directory is a business institution. It occupies a place peculiarly its own. It is as necessary to the progress and development of a city generally as anything naturally would be which deals with such a fundamental as the citizens themselves.

If you are not advertising your business in the Directory, may we explain how and why it will pay you?

The Association of North American Directory Publishers is composed of reputable City Directory Publishers, organized for the general advancement of the Directory business. Any person, corporation or firm engaged in business as owner and publisher of a City Directory in the United States or Canada, who shall qualify as competent to gather information and compile a City Directory and furnish satisfactory references, is eligible to membership.

The objects of the Association are:

First. The advancement of the Directory business and the improvement of Directories by the interchange of ideas and the exchange of experienced employes.

Second. To provide protection to the public against fraudulent advertising schemes which operate under the name of Directories, and to drive unprincipled promoters of the same out of business.

Third. To provide permanent and profitable employment to competent, industrious and honest Directory canvassers and compilers.

Fourth. For the mutual protection and advancement of the established and prospective interests of all who may become members, by personal advice and assistance of members as may be mutually satisfactory, desirable or advisable, and by such other means as may, from time to time, be shown to be wise, proper and lawful.

All members of this association have subscribed to the following

STANDARDS OF PRACTICE

1. To consider, first, the interest of the user of the book.
2. To subscribe to and work for truth, honesty and accuracy in all departments.
3. To avoid confusing duplication of listings, endeavoring to classify every concern under such headings as best describe it, and to treat additional listings as advertising, to be charged for at regular rates.
4. To increase public knowledge of what directories and reference media contain; to study public needs and make directories and reference media to supply them; to revise and standardize methods and classifications so that what is wanted may be most easily found, and the directory and reference media be made to serve their fullest use as business and social reference books and directories of buyer to seller and seller to his market.
5. To decline any advertisement which has a tendency to mislead or which does not conform to business integrity.
6. To solicit subscriptions and advertising solely upon the merits of the publication.
7. To avoid misrepresentation by statement or inference regarding circulation, placing the test of reference publicity upon its accessibility to seekers as well as on the number of copies circulated.
8. To co-operate with approved organizations and individuals engaged in creative advertising work.
9. To avoid unfair competition.
10. To determine what is the highest and largest function of directories and reference media in public service and then to strive in every legitimate way to promote that function.

$100.00 REWARD will be paid by the Association for the arrest and conviction of any person or persons engaged in publishing, collecting or canvassing for any fraudulent or "fake" Directory.
